Interested participants from the Bloomington-Normal disc golf community met to begin the steps to establish Bloomington-Normal Disc Golf Club as an official functioning unit.

Participants determined that the official club names would be Bloomington-Normal Disc Golf Club, the abbreviated name is BNDisc and the website is BNDisc.com

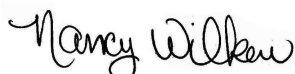

Participants viewed bylaws from surrounding disc golf clubs and determined that the Springfield Disc Golf Club's bylaws will be used as a template in the establishment of bylaws for the Bloomington-Normal Disc Golf Club.

Participants interested in holding an office provided their names. Sam Ball proposed an interim Board of Officers be established based on participant interest. After discussion amongst participants, the following interim Board of Officers was established. The following individuals will hold the positions until the 2011/2012 of Bloomington-Normal Disc Golf Club begins on March 1, 2011: Ben Douglas, President; Dave Owens, Vice President; Nancy Wilken, Secretary; Sam Ball, Treasurer; Dan Nagle, Trustee.

Discussion was held on the condensed list of logo suggestions compiled by Nancy Wilken. There was discussion about what components the logo should have to make it useful for all aspects of the club. It was determined that selected logos would be retooled to meet the club requirements. After final copy is done, there would be a vote for the final club logo.

Officers will meet regularly in the upcoming months to establish completed bylaws, membership recruitment, & the finalization of the club logo.
